

MEDIA RESPONSE

UPDATED: July 5, 2023

PACE North has learned of reports from the media that the Grand Traverse Department of Health and Human Services board (DHHS) has filed a lawsuit against PACE North.

PACE North has not received any notice of legal action taken by the Grand Traverse Pavilions or the DHHS board of directors.

When we receive information and review it, we will post a response.

Please know that serving the participants enrolled in PACE North is our sole focus and remains our highest priority, there will be no impact on care or services received.
